

Sinclair's planned broadcast is a misuse of the public airwaves. Broadcasting rights are given to television stations for free, in return for them serving the public's interest and presenting political messages fairly, with equal time for both sides. These airwaves belong to us, the public, and Sinclair should not have their licenses renewed if they abuse our airwaves.